Издек

Р 1: Rasul Gamzatov, a leading contemporary Dagestan poet, was born in 1923 into the family of folk bard Gamzat Tsadassa, People`s Poet of Dagestan, who lived in the small Avar village of Tsada in the Khunzakh region.

Хабиб

Р 2: Rasul Gamzatov was eleven years old when he wrote his first verses. After secondary school he continued his education at the Literary Institute in Moscow. On graduating from the institute he returned to his native Dagestan. Since then his poetry collections have been appearing in Avar, his mother tongue, in Russian, and in many other languages of the peoples of the Russian Federation and in foreign translations.

Ибрагим

Р 3: In 1950 Rasul Gamzatov was awarded the State Prize for his long poems “Conversation with My Father”, “A Girl of the Mountains”, and the collection of poems “The Year of My Birth”. In 1974 he was awarded the Lenin Prize for his collection of poems “The High Stars”. Since then he has published a number of new collections, such as “The Characters”, “And Star Talks to Star”, “The Mulatto Woman”, “Beads of Years”, “The Last Price”, “The Octaves”. In 1974 he was awarded the title of Hero of Socialist Labour.

Залина

Р 4: Gamzatov is a lyric poet. In his poems he managed to combine the traditional Avar style with new content; this was made possible by his creative assimilation of the best of all Russian poetry and the poetry of the whole world.

Р 5: It is no accident that a number of the poet`s verses have been set to music and sung all over the country. Especially great popularity is enjoyed by the song “Cranes” written by the composer Yan Frenkel after Rasul Gamzatov`s poem of the same name about the soldiers who did not come back from the Great Patriotic War .

Believe me, the first ...

(Rasul Gamzatov)

Pupil 1-Издек

Believe me, the first error is not terrible,
And the first offense is not important,
And the very first fear is akin to fright.
And if in your fate happened suddenly,
What's the first time you hurt a friend --
Do not blame, try to understand each other.

Pupil 2-Залина

Perhaps the world would find
People who never strays from the path
Hearts have never been shrouded in mist.
And if another of your misfortune befell:
He said not that, not so and then --
His mistake do not consider fraud.

Pupil 3-Ибрагим

Friends, what a stupid mistake my cursing,
Once abandoned me, --
For you my house is always open. Come in!
All those who laughed with me and sad,
I love you as before. I forgave you all.
But only me, my friends, forgive me.

Проектная работа (Агаев Ибрагим)

Our country is rich in great writers, artists, composers, scientists, musicians and sportsmen well-known all over the world.

I want to tell about my favourite Daghestan poet Rasul Gamzatov.

Rasul Gamzatov - the brilliant poet, the greatest of the great.

He was not of an age, but for all time. Daghestan people love and respect a man who did a lot for their nation.

He was the man who had the largest and most comprehensive soul.

People all over the world can't help admiring his great talent.

He left in the last autumn, as poets leave, giving us everything he had. He was ours, he belonged to everyone. He always comes back when we need him – with poems, songs. And he's alive as long as we remember him.

You can fit a heart in the palm of your hand,
But you can't fit the whole world in your heart.

Other countries are very good,

But Dagestan is more expensive for the soul.

(R. Gamzatov)

Teacher:

Rasul Gamzatov was the great son of the Avar people, Rasul considered himself the son of all Dagestan.

Who knows his poems in Avar language?

Рассказывают стихотворения на аварском и английском языках.

Teacher:

Finishing today's lesson I would like to remember the words of Rasul Gamzatov:

1. The first treasure is the land, the mountains and the plains.

2. The second treasure is the water, the rivers, the lakes and the sea.

And what's the third treasure? Finish the mind of our great poet.

3. The third treasure...is the People, their skill and their achievements» .

Teacher:

Daghestan, everything that people gave me,

I will divide on honor with you,

My awards and medals

I will pin on your tops.

Finishing today's lesson I want to say thank you all of you.

Thank you for your active work for our lesson.

I'll put excellent marks to...good marks...

Write down your homework, please. Слайд
